(54) GAME MACHINE OF SYMBOL DISPLAYING TYPE

(57)Abstract:

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To grasp the symbol of a prize winning accessory at a glance by providing an illuminating means irradiating light to the symbol displayed by a variable display part from a back face side so as to illuminate and varying a light irradiating range by this illuminating means so as to vary the range of illumination.

SOLUTION: A slot machine main body is provided with a reel unit having three reels 3 arranged in a line and each reel is rotated by a stepping motor 28, which is set to an L-shaped supporting board 25 fixed to a side board 22. An illumination unit 32 illuminating a symbol strip 31 by varying the range of illumination between a range shown by a dashed line and a small range shown by a two-dot chain line is provided on the upper side of this board 25. The unit 32 is provided with a light shielding barrel 36 incorporating an illuminating lamp 35 and a lens mirror barrel 37 to be screwed to this through a hilicoid, and by rotating the barrel 37 by a motor 39 via a gear 38, the barrel 37 is vertically moved to vary the irradiating range of light.
